

Growth Group Notes

15-10-23

Scripture: Revelation 3:7-13

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

Extra Questions

Read Revelation 4:1-11

Here we read about what John sees when the “door” to heaven is open (c.f. 3:7, 8, 12). What is it like to be close to God’s throne? What response comes from the creatures and elders in this position?

To what extent is this your response to God now? What does this show about your view of God, and your view of life?

Read Revelation 6:10-11; 12:11

When Jesus promises to preserve the believers in Philadelphia from “the hour of trial” (3:10), what do you think he means? What can he not mean, in view of the passages above?

Read Hebrews 12:1-4

What helps us persevere when we’re threatened for following Jesus?

Growth Group Notes

15-10-23

Scripture: Revelation 3:7-13

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

Extra Questions

Read Revelation 4:1-11

Here we read about what John sees when the “door” to heaven is open (c.f. 3:7, 8, 12). What is it like to be close to God’s throne? What response comes from the creatures and elders in this position?

To what extent is this your response to God now? What does this show about your view of God, and your view of life?

Read Revelation 6:10-11; 12:11

When Jesus promises to preserve the believers in Philadelphia from “the hour of trial” (3:10), what do you think he means? What can he not mean, in view of the passages above?

Read Hebrews 12:1-4

What helps us persevere when we’re threatened for following Jesus?