

Weekly Reading Notes

15-8-2021

Scripture: Judges 2:6-23

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

Extra Questions

Read 1 Corinthians 10:6-14 (c.f. Judges 2:11-13, 17)

According to this passage, what's one valuable impact that Old Testament narratives should have on us today?

What forms of idolatry do you think Christians might struggle with more during lockdown? (Reminder: An idol is anything to which we give 'divided loyalty.' E.g. "I trust/need/am committed to God, and almost as much I trust/need/am committed to ...")

Read Psalm 77:1-15 (c.f. Judges 2:10)

How would you describe Asaph's struggles in this Psalm? (v1-9)

What does he do to address these struggles (v10-15)? What could it look like to do this for ourselves and with our families today?
