

Growth Group Notes

3-9-23

Scripture: Mathew 20:17-34

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

Extra Questions

Read Titus 1:10-16

What must elders do with false teachers? Why?

Some people say “doctrine divides – so we should just focus on love.” What would Paul say about this?

Read 1 John 4:7-12

Notice the many uses of the word ‘love’ here. What do we learn about what love is, where it comes from and why it’s so important?

If someone doesn’t love God and others, what does it potentially show about them?

John Piper:

Truth aims at love: "The goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith" (1 Tim 1:5). Note: instruction is not the goal, love is. Instruction is the means. It is subordinate. Truth serves love. Education serves relationships - mainly the relationship between us and God, but also between Christian and Christian, and between us and unbelievers. The "goal" of all our education is love.

Love aims at truth: "Love does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth" (1 Cor 13:6). Love is glad when truth is spoken. Therefore love aims at truth. It supports truth.

Growth Group Notes

3-9-23

Scripture: Mathew 20:17-34

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

Extra Questions

Read Titus 1:10-16

What must elders do with false teachers? Why?

Some people say “doctrine divides – so we should just focus on love.” What would Paul say about this?

Read 1 John 4:7-12

Notice the many uses of the word ‘love’ here. What do we learn about what love is, where it comes from and why it’s so important?

If someone doesn’t love God and others, what does it potentially show about them?

John Piper:

Truth aims at love: "The goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith" (1 Tim 1:5). Note: instruction is not the goal, love is. Instruction is the means. It is subordinate. Truth serves love. Education serves relationships - mainly the relationship between us and God, but also between Christian and Christian, and between us and unbelievers. The "goal" of all our education is love.

Love aims at truth: "Love does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth" (1 Cor 13:6). Love is glad when truth is spoken. Therefore love aims at truth. It supports truth.